SONGS OF PROTEST

with Lisa Wildman
and Mickey Biberfeld

The program will mainly feature protest songs from the 60s (i.e. Bob Dylan, Buffy Sainte-Marie, Pete Seeger, Malvina Reynolds) but expanded to those of any era. Our main performers, Lisa Wildman (<http://lisawildmanmusic.com/>) (performed with us with Group W) and Mickey Biberfeld (Luke's Place Coffeehouse <http://www.uccnorthwales.org/music/>), are two of the finest local folksingers who have songs of this era in their repertoire. Our own Carl Baron will perform also with the others.

MAGPIE

Terry Leonino and Greg Artzner

From traditional songs to vintage blues, swing and country to folk classics to contemporary and stirring original compositions, they cover a lot of musical ground. With their powerful voices and harmonies and their excellent instrumental arrangements on guitars, mandolin, harmonica, dulcimer, and concertina, their sound is much bigger than just two people.

BRAD LITWIN

is a ragtime jazz and stride blues guitarist who can sing! He will be accompanied by Michael Salsburg on violin. With the rompin' stompin' finger-picking styles of Blind Blake and Robert Johnson, adaptations of Fats Waller and Willie "the Lion" Smith, the smooth crooning of the Mills Brothers, and the exhilaration of Bessie Smith, Litwin marries peak guitar performance with a voice that engages from the first phrase - dazzling as he shifts from dark to light, funny to tender, smooth to rollicking.

Extra voluntary donations to our Charity of the Evening can be made in the specially marked boxes. In the past these donations have included local food and housing projects, disaster relief and international programs aimed at providing education and self-sufficiency to impoverished rural areas.
