

Philip Gulley Weekend – Phil’s virtual visit to Gwynedd Friends

October 22 – 24, 2021 Attend on Zoom or in person

A Quaker pastor, writer, blogger, and speaker, Philip Gulley prods his audience to examine beliefs about faith and religious experience with humor & audacity.

Living the Quaker Way - shows how simplicity, peace, integrity, community and equality can be incorporated in personal & public life to bring renewal.

Unlearning God – teaches how to let go of burdensome obstacles in our faith so a more authentic relationship with God can be built.

Preview: <https://www.philipgulley.com/is-religion-a-force-for-good-or-evil-1/>

Friday, 10/22, 7 – 8 pm

An entertaining hour of storytelling about his faith journey and what he had to “unlearn” to come to a fuller understanding and experience of God.

Saturday, 10/23, 10 – 11 am

Phil shares beliefs about God that keep us from experiencing God. Followed by Breakout Groups & a “bring your own” lunch.

Saturday, 10/23, 1 – 2 pm

Talk by Phil on “Living the Quaker Way.”

Sunday, 10/24, 11 – 12:15

Adult Quaker Education, exploration of “Living the Quaker Way.” Led by Gwynedd members.

Follow this link to attend all sessions: <https://zoom.us/j/8046446617> Password: 425895

RSVP to lezenby@gmail.com (encouraged but not required) with RSVP in the subject line. Include your name, whether you’ll be attending by Zoom or in person & what sessions you will be attending.

To make an optional contribution to the work of the Gathering Garden, please send your check (made out to Gwynedd Friends, with Gathering Garden on the memo line) to: Gwynedd Friends
1101 Dekalb Pike
Gwynedd PA 19454